

ETSM2030

European Tourism Sustainability Monitoring

Funded by the European Union

ETSM2030

European Tourism Sustainability Monitoring

Your benefits.

Why participate?

- network with other SMTEs in your field
- exchange with other SMTEs
- gain knowledge in sustainability topics
- participate in tailored workshops by experts
- show your sustainability to your stakeholders
- plan and implement sustainability innovation projects
- financial support for your efforts

Criteria.

Who can participate?

Small or medium sized enterprises

Registered in one of the following EU-member states: Austria, Germany, Italy, Poland, Romania or Slovenia.

Established for at least 3 financial years

Work in the tourism sector

Willingness to implement cutting-edge developments

Ability to network

About ETSM2030.

The ETSM2030 is a project funded by the European Union (EU) to foster sustainability certification and sustainability knowledge within SMTEs as well as bring together sustainable working SMTEs in a network, where exchange is encouraged.

show your sustainability.

Funded by
the European Union

WWW.ETSM2030.EU

Contact.

We are here to help you out

For Austria our local contact is:

etsm2030@uibk.ac.at

Your Austrian contact persons:

Johanna Sparber

Marina Farbmacher

Your Application.

Be part of our team.

1. Visit us on our website:
www.etsm2030.eu
2. Register via the subpage
"Apply". All data is stored confidential!
3. Fill in the application form - if you have any questions - we are here to help you out!
4. Our experts will evaluate the application and we inform you about the application status!

Process.

-
1. Selection of SMTEs
 2. Evaluating the status quo regarding sustainability
 3. Improve knowledge about sustainability monitoring
by coachings and trainings
 4. Develop a suitable sustainability monitoring
tool
 5. Implement sustainability innovation projects
 6. SESTINE network for exchange of sustainable working SMTEs
 7. Application for sustainability certification